ASK POSTPONEMENT IN BATTLE OVER RAISE IN FARES

City Attorneys Will Seek To Gain More Time to Prepare Their Case

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Enraged Long Beach commuters on the Pacific Electric today caused a near riot when they resented the reported efforts of a conductor to stop the circulation of a petition to the state railroad commission protesting the new fare rates between Long Beach and Los Angeles.

It was stated that the conductor's efforts to stop the circulation of the petition was without authorization from the main office of the Pacific Electric Company.

Time will be needed by the attorneys for the communities objecting to the Pacific Electric passenger fare increase in order that they may post themselves on the vast amount of data entering into the case.

City Attorney Bert P. Woodard states that no less than three months' intensive study would be necessary for the attorney who would thoroughly familiarize himself with the railroad commission's engineers' reports. These fill four large volumes and are overloaded with references.

"From the information I have gleaned from two of these books," the railroad commission has reversed its attitude twice in the matter of raising fares on a profitable line such as Los Angeles to Glendale," said Mr. Woodard. "After I read the other two books I may find two more switches in their calculations as to how the Pacific Electric can make a profit."

To Ask for Postponement

Attorney Robert Young of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, who is leading the fight against the new fares, probably will ask for a thirty day postponement of the hearing set for January 24.

"The Pacific Electric case has been before the state railroad commission for years," he said, "and there is a vast accumulation of data.

"It is utterly impossible to digest this material and assemble and organize a showing why the old rates were adequate and the new rates are excessive and unfair in so short a time."

Meeting At Long Beach

Mr. Young was instructed to employ an engineer and an accountant if necessary, to aid him in examining the data. The Long Beach city council tonight will have an open forum on the new rates while a mass meeting will be held at the municipal auditorium in Ocean Park tonight at 8 o'clock.

Representatives from Glendale, Hollywood, Santa Monica, Long Beach, and South Pasadena are invited, it is reported.

Gets No New Benefits

Glendale's attitude in the matter, it is understood from informal expressions by City Attorney Woodard, will be based on the ground that Glendale receives no new benefits under the increase; that adequate depot facilities are not provided; that the service is not commensurate with the fare charged, etc. He expects to amend his original petition for rehearing, having reserved the right to do so.

No animosity mars the proceedings so far, however, and Glendale people are gladly paying for whatever is fair, but it is the consensus of opinion that the railroad commission has erred. It should be understood that the Pacific Electric is extracting a legal tariff.

Mrs. Alfred Molitor's Friends Bid Adieu

Mrs. Mary J. Bettis of 1120 San Rafael street entertained a few friends of her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Molitor, Monday night, quite informally. They were given a glimpse of the many beautiful wedding gifts that are to be packed tomorrow for shipment to their new home. Those invited were Miss Maud Soper, Miss Goldie Drake, Miss Alice Carpenter, Mrs. C. B. Haig, Miss Dorothy Haig, Misses Vera and Edna Murphy. Light refreshments were served. Since returning from their honeymoon at Catalina, Mr. and Mrs. Molitor have cnanged their plans and will leave Wednesday for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will make their future home.

John L. Circle On Trip to New York

John L. Circle of 449 West California avenue, who is buyer and manager of the shoe department of a large Los Angeles firm, left Sunday for New York City. He will return about the first of February.

Local Pastors Attend Presbytery Sessions

Rev. W. E. Edmonds and Rev. Louis Tinning, pastor and assistant pastor of the Church of the Lighted Cross, are attending the presbytery sessions today at the Vermont Avenue Presbyterian church in Los Angeles.

WILSON AND GLENDALE RECOMMENDED AS PLACE FOR LOCAL POSTOFFICE

Advices received from Congressman Walter F. Lineberger's office in Washington state that the postal inspector has recommended Wilson and Glendale avenues as a site for the postoffice.

It is stated that property owners of the extreme eastern section of the city gathered a fund with which to build and equip a building on the southeast corner, the property of Anthony Ambrosini, which he is donating.

It is not yet known what action will be taken by the patrons of the postoffice relative to the recommendation of the postal inspector.

Cemetery Ordinance Under Discussion by C. of C. Directors

Opposition to the encroachment of cemeteries into Glendale was expressed this noon at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors. Repeal of the present city ordinance, which is now being sought in the courts, will be bitterly fought, the Chamber arising to the city's imperiled position.

Henry A. James, a Glendale resident who is interested in the making of motion pictures for churches, addressed the board regarding the project. Both the civic and couny affairs committee and the publicity committee dined with the directors, the Glenn Inn staff serving.

Tonight the annual membership meeting will be held and the business before the Chamber will be the formulating of a program. The opening of the new Chamber of Commerce building and dedicatory program will be held the evening of February 2.

New Members Secured

Individuals and firms whose names were offered for membership included:

George Berg, 548 West Broadway, builder.

John W. Garner, Jr., Gives Picture Show

John William Garner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garner of 600 North Louise street entertained a group of neighborhood friends at a "moving picture show" at his home last night, the event being a trial performance with one of his Christmas gifts. The little folks present included Billy and Sally Grey, Elmer Bell, Douglas Draper, Thomas Taggart, Worthington Garner and John W. Garner, Jr. At the close of the performance candy and refreshments were enjoyed.

Cemetery and Fares Will Be Discussed

The Southern Glendale Improvement club, of which Stuart Street is president, will meet at the branch library building at Los Feliz and Brand boulevard Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, instead of Thursday night. It is expected that at that time members of the city council, the city manager and city attorney will be present. The matter to be taken up for discussion will be the street car fares and about the cemetery.

High School Heating Plant Is Shut Down

None of the pupils at the high school got over heated today. There was a reason. Old age overcame one of the boilers at 7 o'clock this morning. Clarke St. Clair, had janitor, was obliged to report that there could be no heat until it had been repaired. At noon the engineer was expected from Los Angeles and it was anticipated that the heating plant would be in operation tomorrow.

FOR SCHOOL PLAYGROUND

Mrs. E. V. Bacon, finance chairman of the Cerritos Avenue Parent-Teacher association, is in charge of the moving picture entertainment to be given at the school Friday night to purchase apparatus for the school playground.

MRS. A. H. BROWN HOSTESS

Mrs. A. H. Brown of 638 North Howard street entertained as her luncheon guests today Mrs. G. E. Smith of Highland Park, Mrs. L. Worel of Los Angeles and Mrs. H. B. Stecher of Glendale.

BETSY ROLSTON IS GUEST

Miss Dorothy Williams, 208 South Orange street, entertained as her guest over the week-end Miss Betsy Rolson of Pomona, a former college chum at Berkeley.

MEETINGS HELD BY TWO SECTIONS OF TUESDAY CLUB

Both Literary and Shakespeare Departments In Session Yesterday Afternoon

Two sections of the Tuesday Afternoon club held meetings yesterday—the literary section and the Shakespeare section. Both meetings proved very delightful and instructive.

As yesterday was the first meeting of the literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon club in the new year, a social hour was enjoyed by the members at the home of the curator, Mrs. F. L. Hollingsworth, 462 Riverdale Drive.

Mrs. H. C. Wilcox resigned as secretary of the section and Mrs. G. H. Rowe was elected to fill that position.

The program for the afternoon included a review of current events of the last month by Mrs. J. E. Sargent and a review of New Year's editorials in the principal newspapers of the United States by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward.

Fancy dancing by Jean Williams and Helen Rosenberg, granddaughter of the hostess, was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Ayars was requested to repeat the splendid review given by her recently on the "Americanization of Edward Bok" at some future meeting.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by the twenty or more members present.

Shakespeare Section Meets

A very interesting meeting of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Jones, 430 West Vine street, for study and rehearsal of "Midsummer Night's Dream," scenes from which will be presented on the program to be given by the section at the club meeting January 17.

Mrs. H. W. Ralston, assisted by the curator of the section, Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, had charge of rehearsal. This was followed by a study of the last part of the fourth act and first part of the fifth act from "Richard II."

At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Jones was assisted as hostes by Mr. Bert Ward.

Building Committee Meet

The members of the building committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet tomorrow night at the home of the president, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, 246 North Orange street, at which time plans will be submitted for their approval of the new clubhouse, which is to be erected by that organization at the corner of Lexington Drive and Central avenue.

After receiving the approval of the committee the plans will be submitted to the club members for discussion.

Children's Day Program

A "Children's Day" program will be presented at the next meeting of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, which will be held Friday, January 13, at the home of Mrs. L. N. Hagood, 216 North Orange street. Mrs. Eva Cunningham will assist as hostess.

Frank Salmacia Home Scene of Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salmacia of 361 West California avenue entertained with a surprise dinner party Sunday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Salmacia's father, Vincent Salmacia, Sr. Holiday decorations of red and green were used throughout the house.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. Holzmer, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wilkinson and daughter Elizabeth and Arthur Schuster of Los Angeles, Vincent Salmacia, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Salmacia, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salmacia of Glendale. The afternoon was spent in playing cards.

Executive Board of Music Club Meeting

The members of the executive board of the Glendale Music club, of which Mrs. Mattison B. Jones is president, is meeting in the music rooms of the high school this afternoon.

At the session plans were advanced for the music memory contest which is to be put on by that organization, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Gibson, in the near future.

Street Assessment for Schools to be Topic

At the regular meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, which will be held at the Intermediate school tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, will speak on "Street Assessment for the Schools." At that time reports of committee chairmen will also be given.

NIGHT STUDIES AT HIGH SCHOOL BIG AID, DECLARED

Students And Teachers In Assembly Discuss Various Opportunities Offered

Opportunities offered by the night courses at the Glendale Union High School, which have a total enrollment of 425 persons, were discussed last night at an assembly. Several students enthusiastically spoke of the benefits which they were receiving from the classes.

A. L. Ferguson, principal of the night school, presided. He called attention to the fact that the funds for night school expenses next term would be based upon the attendance this term and that it was absolutely necessary that those who appreciated the opportunities should be regular in their attendance.

One student, who said that he had not been able to go beyond the sixth grade in day school, expressed his pleasure at being able to attend the night school. He said that he had hesitated about enrolling because he had feared an entrance examination might be necessary. This brought out the fact that students might enter at any time regardless of the previous amount of schooling.

Plenty of Equipment

Arthur R. Oliver, head of the mechanical arts department, stated that the school had plenty of good equipment and that, while the attendance was good, there was still room for more students. He remarked that it required some "stick-to-it-tiveness" but that attendance was well worth while.

Paul Webb, instructor in business English and arithmetic, declared that numbers of persons, who were mechanically inclined, did not realize the importance of being able to use both correct and effective English until it was almost too late. He welcomed new students to his classes in business letter writing and general arithmetic and said that they offered a splendid opportunity to acquire new information or "freshen up" on those subjects.

George O. Lockwood, instructor in mechanical drawing, asserted that some of the best training he had secured personally had been at evening school. He urged the students to advertise the night school among their friends.

Necessity of Spanish

Henry E. Brockway, instructor of Spanish, commented that about sixty million people in South America and about twenty-one million in Europe converse in Spanish. He touched briefly upon his work as head of translation department of the Harrower Laboratory.

A similar assembly will be called at 8 o'clock tonight to discuss the subject offered on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Members of the faculty will outline the work offered in their classes.

Among those who will give brief talks will be Morgan Smith, who has charge of the machine shop; Preston Fullen, instructor in penmanship and bookkeeping; Miss Wilhelmina Hobush, instructor in millinery and sewing; Walter Gorman, who has charge of the wood shop; and Howard L. Butterfield, gymnasium director.

Brand Boulevard's Improvement Given Committee's Thought

A joint meeting of the railroad committee of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the executive committee of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association was held last night in Charles B. Guthrie's real estate headquarters, 103½ South Brand boulevard.

It was decided to have a representation appear before the city council and demand the lowering of the Pacific Electric tracks to grade between Colorado boulevard and Windsor road and then paving the boulevard.

Although this was an executive session, Mr. Guthries was impelled to give out this information because a newspaper writer was present.

Madrigal Club Busy Rehearsing Program

The Madrigal club will hold their regular practice Wednesday morning. Mrs. John W. Cotton, president of the club, is very much gratified with the progress made by the club in rehearsing for their annual concert, which will take place January 19. This coming treat, toward which the friends of the club members are looking forward, is to be a colonial affair, given in costume, and the program will include a minuet.

The club has thirty members, all of whom will appear on the program in chorus work. Among the members are Mrs. Virginia Freeman, soprano soloist, who has had considerable experience in concert work, and Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong Welcome, violinist. Mrs. J. A. Wright is accompanist.

MAN AND AGED WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH IN HOMES

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 10.—A woman and a man were burned to death and several others had narrow escapes in a fire which destroyed three dwelling houses here early today. Mrs. Josephine Playton, 80, and Harry McAller, 51, lost their lives. Mrs. Elizabeth Stinner was overcome by smoke.

IRELAND EXPECTS TO ENTER INTO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Ireland expects to be admitted to the league of nations as a free state during 1922, it was learned today. It is expected that formal application will be made as soon as the Irish free state comes into being and that Great Britain will see to it that Ireland is successful in gaining admission.

PERET AND BOURGEOIS ARE RE-ELECTED IN FRANCE

PARIS, Jan. 10.—Raoul Peret was this afternoon re-elected president of the French chamber of deputies, and M. Bourgeois was re-elected president of the senate. Echoes of the naval controversy in the Washington conference resounded in the chamber foreign relations committee when the question raised by Minister of Marine Guisthau regarding the publication of official naval opinion upon the revue martime was discussed.

GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER SWORN IN AS U. S. SENATOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—George Wharton Pepper, noted Philadelphia lawyer and publicist, was sworn in at 12:05 o'clock today as the senatorial successor of the late Senator Boies Penrose. The oath was administered to the new Pennsylvania senator by Vice President Coolidge in the presence of members of the Pepper family and a number of well known Pennsylvanians, including Governor William C. Sproul, to whom Pepper owed his appointment.

BORAH ASSERTS ELECTION OF NEWBERRY WAS 'TAINTED'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Charging that the election of Senator Truman H. Newberry was "tainted" by the corrupt use of money, Senator Borah, republican, of Idaho, today attacked Newberry's right to retain his seat. Borah joined with other progressive republicans like Kenyon, of Iowa, in refusing to accept Newberry's explanation that he was not personally responsible for the expenditure of about $195,000 by his family and friends to secure his nomination in the Michigan primary of 1918.

'AIN'T WE GOT FUN,' SING GIRLS, AS BUILDING BURNS

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 10.—Two firemen were overcome and damage estimated at $275,000 resulted from a fire which started in a 5 and 10 cent store in the heart of the business district. A serious conflagration was threatened before the fire was brought under control. While the fire was at its height 125 girls employed in the store appeared on the scene with their lunches under their arms and congregated in Fifth avenue and sang "Ain't We Got Fun."

DEPUTY PROSECUTOR PICTURES BURCH AS WEAKLING

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—Madalynne Obenchain broke up the home of Arthur C. Burch, on trial for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, and his infatuation for her caused him to desert his wife, Allie Quayle Burch, and their baby, Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes charged in his argument to the jury in the case today. Picturing Burch as a weakling whom Mrs. Obenchain, co-defendant in the case, knew would do anything she asked, Keyes swung into the most important part of his address to the jurors with a rapid review of the prosecution's evidence, which, he said, showed that the two conspired to kill Kennedy.

OLD COURIER-JOURNAL BUILDING DESTROYED BY FIRE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 10.—The old Courier-Journal building was destroyed by fire early this morning with an estimated loss of between $800,000 and $1,000,000. The blaze started in a jewelry store on the fourth floor and baffled the efforts of the entire fire department to check its spread. The building, built with bricks brought from England at a cost of $200,000, was a show place of the middle west and Kentucky for a number of years. It was here that Colonel Henry Watterson worked. The new Courier-Journal building, about half a block away, was several times in danger but firemen succeeded in diverting the flames.

ARTHUR GRIFFITH IS ELECTED HEAD OF DAIL EIREANN

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, was today formally elected president by Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein parliament). Griffith succeeds Eamonn DeValera who resigned because the Irish peace treaty was ratified by the Dail. Griffith announced his cabinet as follows: Foreign affairs, George Gavan Duffy; finance, Michael Collins; defense, Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff of the I. R. A.; home affairs, E. J. Duggan; local government affairs, Deputy Cosgrave; economics, Deputy Higgin. President Griffith and his cabinet constitute the provisional government of the Irish free state, which will shortly take over all administrative authority in Ireland (outside of Ulster province) from the British. Eamonn DeValera and his adherents bolted Dail Eireann. DeValera gained the floor and said that he could not remain in the house while voting was in progress for Griffith. Accompanied by fifty-five of his followers, he left the hall.

SEWER FOR ENTIRE CITY DISCUSSED WITH COUNCIL

Officials and Committee in Session; Two Questions on Subject Are Submitted

A general sewage disposal system for the entire city of Glendale was discussed last night at a special meeting of the city council and the sewage committee with the result that, at the suggestion of Councilman Dwight W. Stephenson, the following questions were presented to the committee:

First—Is it in the opinion of the committee a proper time to start proceedings to install a general sewage system for the city?

Second—If a piece of ground could be found that would satisfactorily take care by gravity flow of 80 or 90 per cent of the sewage of Glendale, same to be approved by the state board of health, would the committee recommend that this property be acquired by condemnation or otherwise and the people be asked to vote a bond issue to take care of such system?

The questions do not concern the sewage system now being installed in the business district. In fact, if a general system is installed, the system in the business district will become a part of it, so it is declared.

It is understood the committee will hold a meeting next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the city council chamber and endeavor to arrive at answers to the two questions.

The sewage committe, F. H. Vesper, chairman, appeared before the council last night and Chairman Vesper said that because at its regular meeting no definite outline or policy had been determined, the committee was, therefore, not ready to make any report and asked that it be given more time in which to deliberate and that as many of the committee as possible would gather in the council chamber on Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at which time it would no doubt come to some agreement and be ready to make a report.

Mr. Windom addressed the council, favoring a general outfall system, suggesting the Los Angeles river, provided that such a thing were possible.

He upheld the action of the council in promoting the business sewer dis-

PRAYERS OFFERED TO SAVE BOY'S BURNED HAND

Francis Hilton's Brother Saved Him From Electrocution

Neighborhood prayers were offered last night for Francis Hilton, age 14, who was seriously burned Saturday afternoon by a Southern California Edison power line hanging low over Los Angeles river west of this city.

The little lad was taken home yesterday from the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital and is awaiting the doctor's decision for or against amputation of the fingers on his left hand and it is feared that three of the digits will be missing when Francis returns to the Columbus Avenue school.

E. A. Hilton, father of the burned boy, last night told the details of the accident.

When Francis grabbed the wire, which was said to be 21 inches from the damp river bottom, he was hurled writhing to the ground.

Brother Proves Hero

His brother James, aged 12, had the presence of mind to kick the strand out of the way and was himself knocked down by the shock. Recovering, he ran for assistance.

Investigation by Mr. Hilton showed that the line had been feeding a motor used in pumping water at the Los Angeles municipal farm west of Glendale. Power had been ordered off in October, but the boy got the 2250 volt current—more than enough for electrocution. Only his brother's prompt act saved his life, it is believed, as his entire body is spotted with burns.

In fact, his condition is considered so serious that neighbors gathered last night at the Hilton home, 605 West Lexington drive, and prayed for his complete recovery. "Only an act of God can save his hand," the surgeon told the father.

Financial Aid For War Veterans Will Soon Be Provided

An International News Service dispatch to The Evening News states that the State Veterans' Welfare board has announced that the first selection and purchase certificates will be issued early in February to former service men who have applied for state aid under the provisions of the farm and home purchase act passed by the last legislature.

It is estimated that approximately 500 veterans, who are the most deserving of state assistance, will be cared for with the $2,000,000 appropriation carried by the act. The adoption at the November election of the $10,000,000 bond issue, which provides funds to continue the rehabilitation program will assure adequate aid to all California veterans, Robert F. Smith, secretary of the board, stated.

The farm and home purchase act permits the purchase for a veteran of a farm not to exceed the value of $7,500 or a home valued at not more than $5,000. Wounded and disabled men who are in a position to meet the obligations of a contract are to be given first consideration under this act.

Explains Delay In Issuing Licenses to Real Estate Brokers

Edwin T. Keiser, state real estate commissioner, writes The Evening News as follows:

"The State Real Estate Department is issuing licenses at the rate of 1000 per day and all brokers and salesmen who have applied will shortly receive their licenses. However, as practically all applications for renewal were received between December 28 and January 1, the office has a volume of unfilled work. All licenses will be dated the date the application is received and for the next fifteen days the fact that a license is not on the wall will not be evidence that the dealer is not licensed."

More London Couples Becoming Engaged

LONDON—This year has seen a boom in engagements, if the experience of jewelers is to be relied on.

An exceptional holiday season which seaside couples have enjoyed may have something to do with this, but there is an even more probable cause. Living is becoming cheaper.

"It is always at this time of the year," said one engagement ring specialist, "that we have most inquiries. Most people imagine that spring is the busiest time, but autumn is the most profitable to us.

"Couples get engaged in summer, and the rush for rings comes later, because the end of the season girls, I suppose, have to make up their minds more quickly.

"There are more engagements, I believe, during a good summer and tennis season than during the dancing season. The dance is the means of obtaining more introductions to partners, but it provides little else.

"Moreover, dancing is much more regarded as a pastime and recreation, apart from the flirtation opportunities it offers, and modern dancing does not tend to promote sentimental friendships in the same way as the round dances years ago."

SECURITY MARKETS RE-ADJUSTED IN 1921 TRADING

Financial Expert Gives Brief Review of Past Year and Tells Conditions

By MAX CASE
Written for International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Nineteen hundred and twenty one was a year of liquidation and adjustment in all security markets and in operations generally affecting world finance and business. It had been preceded by a year of continuous liquidation and decline in 1920 but at the end of that year the market developed stronger conditions which were maintained well into the first part of 1921.

It was not long, however, before the changed conditions in business, disappointment over promises of reduced labor cost and a strange attitude on the part of the banking managers of the country to continually contract banking accommodations by the payment of indebtedness to the federal reserve institutions, practically choked off everything in the shape of an improving tendency and was effective in causing the lowest prices for over two years to be established in the security trading groups generally during the spring and summer months.

U. S. Steel Holds Market

Important issues like the leading steel industrials led the way for the general list but U. S. Steel proved to be an anchor holding the market generally in a safe position. That leading industrial from a high of the year of 86½ early in May yielded to 70¼ late in June but, although its statements for the succeeding quarters of the year showed steel business at its lowest ebb since 1904, the market position of this stock improved until, at the end of the year, it was back to around the highest level established in the first week of May.

There were other industrials, however, that suffered a crumbling away of values without prospect of recovery in the near future. Among those was American Sugar refining which sold down from 96 in January to a new low record of 47⅝ in October. In the preceding year this stock had sold as high as 142⅝. The changed conditions had a more direct influence on the stock of this and other sugar issues than on any other industrial group and was the direct result of the collapse in the sugar industry which was caused by the decline in the price of refined sugar to below 5 cents a pound after starting the year at 8 cents a pound and having been acquired at prices apparently representing a value of around thirty cents a pound in 1920.

Buying Railroad Shares

After the low prices were recorded in the period ranging from early in June to near the end of August, security values started upward. The situation was steadied at frequent intervals by evidence of a huge accumulation of funds seeking investvestment which could be definitely measured by over-subscriptions to various issues of short term notes and long term bonds.

The overflow of subscriptions to these bond issues was diverted in the latter part of the year to the buying of the better class of dividend paying railroad shares. Many of these issues moved up with a good deal of vigor in the last two months of the fear but did not reach the levels prevailing a fear ago. A feature of the railroad group was the drop in Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul which from 31 on January 12, dropped to 17¼ late in December, the lowest price touched by that stock since 1877.

Money Situation Changes

The money situation was changed from one of inflation to one of deflation. Total gold reserves of the federal reserve banks on December 29 were $2,869,666,000 against $2,059,333,000 on the corresponding day in 1920. Federal reserve note liabilities and deposits combined at the end of the year was 71.1 per cent against 45.1 per cent a year ago. The twelve federal reserve banks now hold 97.2 per cent gold against note liabilities compared with 50.5 per cent a year ago.

In the last week of the year an advancing tendency was partly nullified by heavy sales of securities to establish losses in compiling tax returns.

Council Minutes

trict, feeling that it would be the nucleus of a general system.

Mrs. M. L. Tight referred to Los Angeles' problem, which was now confronting them in regard to the outlets to the sea, which would probably be discussed in court very soon, she said. She called attention to the Hoyt system, which she had investigated.

A. W. Beach referred to his investigation of the various systems having been installed in cities of the Fullerton district and their subsequent necessity to put in general outfalls to the sea.

Dr. H. B. Brown stated that he was in favor of a general system, whether it be the Imhoff, acuvated sludge, or screening process.

Proposes Demonstration

G. W. Woodbery addressed the council regarding his sub-irrigating system and asked for an opportunity to install a unit for demonstration.

Mr. Woodbery's contention that the matter of sewage should be an asset instead of a liability by using the affluent on the land by sub-irrigation through septic tanks, was discussed, but no action taken.

Councilman C. E. Kimlin asked the committee if it would favor a system that would take care of 90 per cent of the city's sewage by gravity flow.

In answer, Mr. Vesper stated that the committee and sub-committees had visited many systems and had come to the unanimous opinion that a sewer system was essential, and that it would be ready for an answer at the next meeting.

Councilman Stephenson then asked that the two questions already given be presented to the sewage committe for disposal. Upon motion, it was so ordered.

City Council Routine

Other business as transacted by the city council, as taken from the minutes of the city clerk, follow:

County Planning Commission

On motion, Dr. Jessie Russell was appointed to represent the city of Glendale together with City Engineer Hill at a meeting of the County Planning commission.

Map of Tract Approved

On motion of Councilman Stephenson the map of tract No. 4733 was adopted by Resolution No. 1334, roll call, all voting aye.

Construction of Ice House

Communication from Harry Oswald to move ice house and erect storage house at corner of Cypress and San Fernando Road, was, upon motion, referred to the city manager for investigation and report.

From Dr. D. E. Baxter

Communication was received from Dr. D. E. Baxter to construct a building for the manufacture of oxygen and nitrous oxide gas on Gardena street, between Eulalia and Los Feliz Road, was, upon motion of Councilman Kimlin, granted, all voting aye.

Auto Permit

Application of J. E. Worthington to conduct an auto passenger car, was upon motion of Councilman Stephenson, referred to the chief of police for investigation and report. Roll call, all voting aye.

Curfew Law

On motion, the chief of police was instructed to rigidly enforce the Curfew law.

Utility Car

On motion of Councilman Stephenson, the purchase of a second-hand Ford roadster to be used as a utility car in the garage was approved.

Amend Zoning Ordinance

On motion of Councilman Kimlin, the city attorney and city engineer were instructed to amend the zoning ordinance by eliminating the territory from 150 feet north of Wilson avenue, on Glendale avenue, from the commercial district.

TARIFF BILL WILL SOON BE GIVEN INTO SENATE

Finance Committee Proposes to Make Report Next Month, Now Belief

By U. S. Press Association.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—Senator Smoot of Utah, a member of the finance committee, expects the tariff bill will be ready to report to the Senate in February. President Harding, in his address to Congress on December 6, voiced the sentiment of the country when, referring to the pending tariff bill, he said: "I can not too strongly urge an early completion of this necessary legislation. It is needed to stabilize our industry at home; it is essential to make more definite our trade relations abroad. More, it is vital to the preservation of many of our own industries which contribute so notably to the very lifeblood of our nation."

Appearing before the finance committee there have been two diametrically opposed schools of thought. One demanded the adoption of the American valuation plan as the only possible method of affording adequate protection to American industries, arguing that if imports are valued at the purchase price abroad, American industries, which in some instances pay as high as ten times the rate of wages paid in foreign countries, can not compete with foreign productions and will be seriously affected.

Importers Oppose

On the other hand, the importers oppose American valuation and declare that its adoption would saddle upon the American people aggregate charges of many billions of dollars annually. Thus it is the duty of the finance committee to consider these arguments carefully, sift the wheat from the chaff and decide upon the policy best calculated to conserve American interests. Their task is to frame a bill which will enable American producers to compete successfully with foreign producers, and yet not impose any unreasonable burden upon the public. They must adhere to the traditional protective policy so enthusiastically endorsed by the voters of this country in 1920, and yet avoid prohibitive tariffs.

The new tariff bill will be protective; of that all may be certain. And it is quite probable that the American valuation principle will be incorporated in the new law, for the president's recommendation on that point appeals with force. He said, "I believe Congress ought well to consider the desirability of the only promising alternative, namely, a provision authorizing proclaimed American valuation, under prescribed conditions, on any given list of articles imported."

Most Gold in America

America is the majority stockholder in the world's supply of monetary gold as the result of importations of this metal in the last twelve months, according to figures of the Federal reserve board. The past year has been marked by the heaviest imports of gold into the United States in its history. The excess of gold imports over exports between November 1, 1920, and November 1, 1921, was $664,000,000, and the gold holdings of Federal reserve banks during that period increased by about $800,000,000.

No considerable exports of gold by this country have occurred this year, while large amounts have been imported from England, France, Sweden, India and Canada. Great Britain alone in the last year sent us more than $240,000,000 of the yellow metal. The present stock of monetary gold in the United States amounts to more than $3,505,000,000, of which more than $2,970,994,000 is held as reserves by the Federal reserve banks.

Sales of Rail Certificates

To date $135,632,700 of car trust certificates, taken by the government during the period of Federal control, have been sold at par with accrued interest, and the money used to adjust railroad accounts arising from government operation of the lines The new year, President Harding believes, will see disposal of hundreds of millions more certificates which will give the government the funds with which to meet the refunding situation so as to cover all necessities without asking for additional authority or additional funds.

Ireland's Death Rate Is Lowest on Record

DUBLIN—In 1920 the average rate of deaths per thousand in Ireland was the lowest on record, despite the fact that a guerrilla war was raging from Cork in the south to Antrim in the north. The total number recorded was 66,538, or 14.8 per 1,000 of the population. Of these 1,851 were due to violence, 1,332 were killed in combat between the Crown forces and the Irish Republican army, and over ninety were killed in their beds in the reprisal campaign. Strange though it may seem considering all the circumstances, only one case of suicide was recorded in the whole twelve monhs.

With wings nearly a foot in width extended, the Great Atlas Moth, of India, is the largest moth or butterfly in the world.

Beds which can be illuminated underneath by electricity are an american invention for the use of nervous people.

Native Of Galilee Will Speak Tonight First M. E. Church

STEPHEN A. HABAUSH
A Shepherd of the Hills

Lecture On Holy Land To Be Made By Recent Palestine Visitor

"A Galilean by birth, a Semite by rearing, French by passport and American by adoption and preference" Stephen A. Habaush from Indiana, in his native costume, will give a lecture tonight at the First Methodist church.

Mr. Habaush was born in Galilee and when a boy was a shepherd for his father's flocks on the hills, and learned to play weird musical instruments. "The Twenty-third Psalm" means a great deal to him and other parts of the Bible relating to his native land.

After arriving in this country, Mr. Habaush worked his way through an American university and is said to be a fluent conversationalist.

Mrs. Habaush accompanies her husband. They have traveled through England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Greece and Egypt. Mr. Habaush recently was in Palestine and observed the new Zionist colonies in the Holy Land.

The program will commence at 7:30 with a concert by the Methodist orchestra led by C. K. Aston.

Mr. Habaush has written numerous newspaper and magazine articles and has been called upon frequently to lecture before church conferences and conventions.

Small Ohio Hamlet Has Memorial Grove

Written for International News Service

ASHLAND, Ohio.—Nankin, a hamlet of 125 inhabitants, in Ashland county, has the first memorial grove in the eastern half of the United States and the second to be planted in this country, it is claimed.

David Youngblood and William Davidson, Civil War veterans, planted eighty maple trees in the spring of 1919. All of these trees, except one, are thriving.

On the trees will be placed a bronze memorial tablet for each person killed, or who served in the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War and the recent World War who were residents of Nankin township.

The Revolutionary War is represented by only one tree, in memory of Patrick Murray, whose family founded the city of Murraysville, Md., back in Colonial days.

A cannon will be placed on each side of the street which runs through the centre of the park. A high flagstaff will be placed in the centre of the grove.

Curfew Ordinance to Be Enforced, Decision

Well, kids, you've got only fifteen minutes to get home at night after the show, so you'll have to hurry.

The city council last night requested the police department to enforce the curfew ordinance.

This entitles any youngster under the age of 18, who is caught out after 9 o'clock at night, to free police attention.

Chief A. O. Martin stated this morning that it was time some of the juvenile citizens ceased to become night owls. He expects to have the curfew ordinance enforced to the fullest extent. However, he has instructed the force to extend the time limit until 9:15 p. m.

The first time a youngster is arrested, parents will be invited to come to the police station and bail him out. For a second offense the offender may be taken to the juvenile court in Los Angeles.

Say, kids, you'd be surprised how many "cops" there are in Glendale.

The fastest trains in the world are said to be two on the Great Western Railway, which at certain stages of their journeys travel at a speed of 78.5 miles per hour.

OVER ONE HUNDRED NATIONS WILL BE AT CONVENTION

Seventh Day Adventists Will Meet In San Francisco From May 11 to 30

By WALTER L. BURGAN
Press Secretary, General Conference

The greatest church convention ever held in America, as far as the number of countries being represented is concerned, will be that of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium from May 11 to 30. One hundred and ten nations will be represented. Reservations have already been made on trans-Atlantic and trans-Pacific steamers to bring the foreign delegates.

This will be the quadrennial session of the governing body of the denomination and practically every leader of the church from the many places in which its missionaries are located will be in attendance.

The leaders of this world-wide movement who have for their aim the giving of the Second Advent message to all the world in this generation are planning on an attendance of between 6,000 and 7,000 adherents. Problems of the greatest importance to the further advancement of the denomination which is continuing to grow in such a meteoric manner are confronting the delegates, and will be considered. Adherents all over the world are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the time when these problems will be discussed. It can be truthfully said that every state in the Union and every province in Canada, Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, New Zealand and the islands of the South Sea will be represented.

To Outline Big Plans

The question of reaching the entire world in a single generation with the gospel proclaiming the second advent of Christ looms larger with each succeeding step toward its consummation, and the leaders mean to lay before the delegates some stupendous plans that will help them to complete this task. The question of sending out missionaries to strengthen the stations already established and entering new fields will involve a tremendous outlay of money, as will the erection of publishing houses and sanitariums in efforts to meet the demands for literature, and places where suffering humanity can be relieved.

Delegates and lay members, too, will carry their check-books with them in the expectation of being asked to set the pace in campaigns in which large amounts of money will be asked for, to at least keep up with the steady growth of the church, and, if possible, forge ahead at a little faster pace.

Election of Officers

Great interest will be manifested in the election of officers of the General Conference executive committee, which will have oversight of the denomination for the coming four years. Elder A. G. Daniells has been president of the General Conference since 1901, holding the proud record of remaining the administrative head of the denomination longer than any previous man. Under his leadership, the denomination has increased from the time when "the General Conference office was carried around in the hand satchel of its president," to the establishment of different departments whose influence is now felt for good wherever the denomination has representatives. He has been instrumental in establishing the Sabbath School, Educational, Publishing, Medical, Young People's and Religious Liberty Departments, all of which are adding strength to the denomination's advancement.

Among the officers to be chosen at the coming convention are: President, three secretaries, treasurer and his assistants; vice-presidents for North America, South America, two in Europe, two in Asia, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa; secretaries of all departments, field secretaries and representatives in the publishing houses and sanitariums, about fifty in all. These leaders will shape the policies of the entire denomination.

LIVE COLES ALL AGLOW!

The members of the Live Cole class of the First Christian church Sunday school are contemplating a full house tonight at their all star entertainment and concert, which is to be staged in the church building on Louise street and Colorado boulevard. The program, which has been especially arranged for the occasion, will include vocal and instrumental selections, readings, a pantomime and other features. The program will start at 8 o'clock sharp.

HIGHLY DECORATED OFFICE

Miss Jane Howe of 1501 South Brand boulevard and Mrs. Elsa McClelland of Eagle Rock, who form the Elsa-Jane Realty Company, are quite proud of the aaried stippled panels on the interior of their new orange and blue one-room office at 1503 South Brand boulevard.

BEN BURCH TAKES CHARGE

Benjamin M. Burch has taken charge of the local Dodge agency service station at Brand boulevard and Harvard street. He has moved his family to 506 South Belmont street.

COOK'S NEW ELECTRIC SIGN

"Cook's-Cafe-Candy" is the text of an electric sign placed in front of that popular establishment in the Glendale Arcade building adjacent to the Glendale theatre.

Elks Pay Tribute to 2 Departed Brothers

At the regular meeting of Glendale Lodge of Elks No. 1289, which was held last night, impressive ritualistic services were held in memory of two departed brothers, Jack H. Ronsee, who was shot at La Crescenta on New Year's morning, and Philo P. Green, also a member of the local lodge and who passed away recently at Salt Lake City, with Exalted Ruler Alfred Priest in charge.

The greater part of the meeting was given over to routine business. Later, Harry Girard, a member of Elks Lodge No. 99 of Los Angeles, favored those present with several vocal numbers. Colonel James Everington of Glendale, who was recently appointed as the new chief of police of Los Angeles, responded appropriately to the hearty demand for a speech.

After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed in the banquet room. Permission had been obtained by Harry McPherson to show a preview of a moving picture comedy which he had assisted in directing, and which was greatly enjoyed. Lunch was then served.

Several important events are scheduled to take place in the near future. On January 23 there will be the annual visitation of the district deputy Charles E. Pitzer, who has charge of the lodges in Southern California. At that time there will be initiation and other special features. The members of Glendale lodge will go to Ventura on Thursday, January 26, to put on the initiatory work for a large class of candidates for membership in the new lodge which was recently organized in that city. Plans are also being formulated for the regular monthly informal dance of the local lodge, which will take place Saturday night, January 28.

Skin Grafting to Aid Man Hurt by Flames

Skin from his legs was grafted upon the arms of E. F. Kober of 139 North Olive street this morning at the Glendale Sanitarium Hospital. Mr. Kober was badly burned on December 1 in Eagle Rock by an explosion while he was working in a cesspool.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. OLIVE MAY PRESTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Olive May Preston, mother of Reverend Harley G. Preston of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church, were held yesterday morning, January 9, 1922, at 10:30 o'clock at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking company. Rev. Davis, district superintendent, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Porter, pastor of the Annandale Methodist church, of which Mrs. Preston was a member. Prayers were offered by Reverend C. M. Crist and Rev. V. H. Brink. "We'll Never Say Good-Bye in Heaven" and "Asleep in Jesus," two favorite hymns of Mrs. Preston's were sung by Spencer Robinson and Mrs. Rhinehart. Miss Donna Wilson, accompanied by Mr. Hollingshead, also sang "Shall We Gather at the River."

Mrs. Olive May Preston was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. McGilvra, and was born January 17, 1864, in Unionsville, Whiteside county, Illinois. Her father was a minister for nearly fifty years in the Methodist Episcopal and Wesleyan Methodist churches. At the age of 8 years she moved with her parents to Marengo, Iowa. She was converted in a Wesleyan Methodist revival meeting when twelve years old and united with that branch of the church of Christ. When 14 years old she moved with her parents to Lake View, Sac County, Iowa. On August 2, 1884, she was united in marriage to Reverend Elmer E. Preston and for fifteen years was the mistress of the parsonage, her husband for the most of this time being a Congregational minister. Three children were born, Harley Glenn Preston, Ethel May and Ruby Lillian. Mrs. Preston later joined the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Olive May Preston has been a widow for twenty-five years and came to California sixteen months ago with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Ruby Stoner, first residing in Los Angeles and then in Eagle Rock, where she belonged to the Annandale Methodist church. While visiting with friends in Los Angeles she was taken seriously ill Wednesday morning, January 4. Everything possible was done and the best medical attention secured, but she passed away. She was sick only thirty-nine hours and her suffering was very severe, yet her children and friends who were constantly at her bedside heard no complaint but just prayers for strength.

Mrs. Preston leaves three children, Reverend Harley G. Preston of Glendale, Mrs. Ethel Mackrill of Sac City, Iowa, and Mrs. Ruby Stoner of Eagle Rock. She also leaves two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Zetta Cooper of Delphos, Kansas, Lucias McGilvra of the same address and Mrs. Carrie Roland of Minnesota.

The body will be taken to her home town, Sac City, Iowa, where further services will be held and interment made in that place, according to her last wishes. It may be said of her as said of another by the Master in Mark, 14:8, "She Hath Done What She Could."

MRS. GEORGIA MALCOLM

Mrs. Georgia Malcolm passed away Sunday morning, January 8, 1922, at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spence of the Modern Shoe Repair Shop of 114 East Broadway, Glendale, at 501 West Colorado boulevard, Eagle Rock, at the age of 74 years. Mrs. Malcolm was a pioneer of Los Angeles and well known among the old residents of that city. For the past two years she had lived in Eagle Rock at the home of her nephew. Funeral arrangements are awaiting arrival of relatives.

REALTY GOOD INVESTMENT

The big trouble with real estate business in southern Glendale is to persuade property owners to stick to their prices more than a couple of days, according to E. T. Jenney, manager for the W. A. Heitman company's branch at 1737 South San Fernando Road.

He declared yesterday that realty values around Brand boulevard and San Fernando Road continued to climb steadily and said that another 50-foot lot on San Fernando Road had been sold within the last few days for $100 a front foot.

Mr. Jenney asserted that one owner had been offered twice as much for his holding as he had paid for it nine months ago and that another resident had sold two lots for 300 per cent more than he paid a year ago and the buyer the next day had been offered 400 per cent over the price a year ago.

Residents in the neighborhood of this real estate office are commenting upon the fine appearance of its new lawn and shrubbery.

B. V. BRASHEAR IS ILL

B. V. Brashear, proprietor of the South Glendale Variety store at 1413 South San Fernando Road, is now confined to his home at 1017 Melrose avenue on account of illness. It is reported that he has been ordered by his physician to remain in bed on a milk diet for six weeks. Meanwhile, many of his friends are visiting him and his father-in-law, Fred Frey, is managing the business until his recovery.

DRY GOODS STORE OPENS

The South Glendale Dry Goods & Furnishings store opened for business last Saturday at 1510 South San Fernando Road under the ownership of G. W. Cox, formerly of Los Angeles, but now located at the De Luxe apartments, 1531 South Central avenue. A line of women's and men's furnishings, notions and children's garments are being carried in stock and Mr. Cox is enthusiastic about the future of southern Glendale.

TURN ABOUT IS FAIR PLAY

"Horses used to haul the wagons; now the wagons haul the horses," remarked J. W. Mueller yesterday afternoon as an auto truck passed his butcher shop at 1414 South San Fernando road with a load of horses for a nearby ranch.

Great Array of Talent Is Announced For First Twilight Recital to be Given For Benefit Catholic Church Organ Fund

HARRY GIRARD, (left), noted singer and composer, and Mrs. Girard, (right), known in the world of make-believe as AGNES CAIN-BROWN, soprano, both of whom will appear in recital here.

A WONDERFUL array of talent has been selected for the first subscription twilight recital to be given for the benefit of the organ fund of the Holy Family church at the Glendale Theatre, Sunday afternoon, January 15, at 4 p. m.

Tickets have been placed on sale at the Glendale Music company and the Glendale Phonograph company stores at $5 for the four monthly recitals. Single admissions will be obtainable at the box office the day of each recital at $1.25, according to Harry Girard, under whose personal supervision these concerts are being given with the full co-operation of Father James S. O'Neill's parish.

Besides Mr. Girard, basso cantante, and his wife, Agnes Cain- Brown, soprano, Miss Truly Shattuck, the renowned dramatic soprano; James Burroughs, lyric tenor; Alma Murphy-Halff, recitations; Carl Gantvoort, baritone; Frank C. Egan, reader; Virginia Ainsworth, contralto; Mrs. Herman D. Ryus, pianiste, and Paul Carson, organist, will contribute their share toward an unparalleled program.

Los Angeles and Hollywood society people are joining with Glendale in making this series of events a great success, Mr. Girard says.

CAN HEAR 'THINKS' NOW

Is it necessary to think when telephoning?

C. S. Jordan and J. M. Murray of the Glendale Sash & Door House, 1422 South San Fernando Road, say that the busy whirring machinery in their establishment made so much noise that they couldn't hear themselves think at the telephone.

So they have just completed a new office which is reported to be moth proof as wtll as sound proof.

MADE DISTRICT MANAGER

A. H. Mayne of the Gateway Automotive company, 327 West Los Feliz Road, is now district manager for the Western Electric company's storage battery, "The Titan," and has appointed the Day & Night garage at 217 East Broadway as the Glendale agency. Mr. Mayne declares that this battery was given first place after the last competitive test by the United States Bureau of Standards.

AWAITING TWIN BROTHER

A. F. Barrett, proprietor of the Triangle Service Filling station, 1700 South San Fernando Road, is awaiting the arrival of his twin brother, J. C. Barrett, from Mountain Home, Ida., before deciding whether or not to put in battery service, wash rack and greasing service.

GEORGE EDWARDS VISITOR

George Edwards, who has been connected with the Edison plant at Bear Creek, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Edwards at the Glendale Grill, 1413 South San Fernando Road Sunday.

Bobbie, a four-year-old, was invited to go with his mother to the Mothers' club. He showed no great desire to go and, after his mother had repeatedly told him that she wanted him to go with her, said with a great show of resignation. "Well, I s'pose I'll have to, and let them hit me all they want to."

FACTORY TO BE ENLARGED

The factory of the Russell-Pierce Furniture company, 1529-33 South San Fernando road, is to be greatly enlarged at once according to an announcement yesterday by R. E. Pierce. Work is to be commenced this week upon an addition which will add 1600 square feet of floor space. The firm will continue to make various examples of "Russell-Made" furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Niatt of Van Nuys Sunday visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Danforth, 1517 South San Fernando Road.

COME HERE FROM IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Benge of Winterset, Ia., are now preparing to settle in Glendale.

ACROSS FRANCE BY BOAT

It is quite possible to take a small vessel from Havre to Marseilles, right through the middle of France. Such a trip was made not long ago. At one place on one of the canals the ship passes over a kind of viaduct and, from the deck, a stream may be seen running beneath. At another spot a tunnel through the rock has to be negotiated. The tunnel is about the size of a railroad tunnel, and the boat is pulled through by an electric tractor.

"Was that your wife I saw you with the other evening, headed for the train?" "My wife was with me one evening and the next I happened to meet a young lady who lives out at our station. Don't know which—by the way, who was carrying the parcels?" "You were, of course." "Oh, that was Miss Cutely you saw."

AND NOW LET IT RAIN!

Any port in a storm" is the motto of W. L. Anderson and his son, J. H. Anderson who recently came in contact with some water—lots of it.

"Andy's Aeroplane" at 1418 South San Fernando road almost became a submarine during the recent storm. The fact that canvas might leak under certain circumstances became very evident. One shower after another somewhat dampened the Anderson ardor for outdoor life. Negotiations resulted in their moving into the building at 1416 South San Fernando road formerly occupied by a moving picture theatre.

BAKERY IN OPERATION NOW

The South Glendale Bakery is now in operation at 1408 South San Fernando road under the ownership of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McBurney, recently from Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hipp, who operated a bakery next door at 1410 South San Fernando road for a number of years, recently had the new establishment completed and, after selling it, are contemplating a nice rest. Mr. Hipp came to Tropico about fifteen years ago. Just after the war, he traveled extensively in Europe. Mr. McBurney is delighted with his new premises and enthusiastic about the possibilities in Southern Glendale.

MODEL CAUSES INQUIRIES

The six-room model frame and stucco bungalow recently placed on display in the reception room of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce by the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, is attracting considerable attention. George Bentley announced yesterday that it had caused a number of inquiries.

CHURCH TO GIVE DINNER

Women of the Tropico Presbyterian church under the direction of Mrs. S. E. Brown of 1239 South Maryland avenue, expect to serve dinner tomorrow night just before the weekly prayer meeting. A large number enjoyed the good "eats" last Wednesday night.

CARE OF JEWELS

It is stated by good authority that the safest way to carry jewels is in a belt, made for the purpose, around the waist. This is not exposed and is secure, if reasonable care is taken in adjusting it, and it is not uncomfortable. The worst possible way is to put them in a jewel case. The business of duplicating strings of pearls is at present a profitable industry of the Riviera towns. The imitations are worn and the genuine are kept in the safe.

LIFE-SAVING DEVICE

A useful invention is the line-carrying buoy. Its inventor sought to devise some means of getting a line from ship to shore, and the line-carrying buoy was the result. When released from the ship, if the wind is in the right directon, it blows steadily toward the shore, the line unwinding behind it as it goes, until finally the buoy is dragged out of the surf with the line intact. In addition to its use in this manner, it is available for all the regular purposes of the ordinary buoy.

IN ADVANCE OF AGE

There are many tragic stories of men who made great discoveries before their time. Their inventions perished, only to be rediscovered and used in later ages. Archimedes, who lived more than two thousand years ago, designed and made a steam engine which really worked. His idea did not catch on, and the world had to wait twenty centuries until steam, raising the lid of a kettle, led James Watt to rediscover an old invention.

SURELY GOOD "CATCH,"

There is a great deal that the king of Siam has to offer a wife. He has twenty palaces, a "Diamond City," a herd of white elephants, nearly two million pounds' worth of diamonds, pearls, rubies and other precious stones, a state barge with a hundred and twenty oarsmen, thousands of other royal barges, a share in twenty-four golden umbrellas and many other luxuries.

"Cornell's 'Oatmeal Finish'" says the Lumberman, "is the handsomest effect in a wallboard of any kind. It brings me many admiring customers."
"Cornell's 'Triple-Sizing'" says the Carpenter, "gives my jobs triple protection against moisture, expansion, contraction, sound and change in temperature."
"'Mill-Primed' means already primed for painting or calcimining," says the Painter. "This saves the work and expense of a priming coat."
Cornell Wood Board

Why these three authorities prefer

Cornell Wood Board

Eight lengths, 6 to 16 ft.—two widths, "Cornell 32" and "Cornell 48"

Those who are "wallboard wise" know Cornell-Wood-Board is worth more money than the ordinary, although Cornell is not priced higher because of our manufacturing advantage. Our vast timberlands and low-cost water-power in Wisconsin enable us to produce a wallboard of pure wood fibre that costs less put up than lath and plaster or plaster board; and that has a greater resistance than ordinary wallboard to moisture, expansion, contraction, sound and change in temperature.

More than that, the Cornell "Oatmeal Finish" has introduced a beauty in wallboard that rivals costly wallpaper.

For walls, ceilings and partitions in new construction, alterations or repairs, there is nothing handier, cleaner or less expensive. Apply Cornell to the joists and studding, over damaged plaster with hammer and nails, and the room is ready in a few hours' time. No muss or litter, no waiting weeks for walls to dry out.

No other wallboard is like Cornell. Get quotations and sample from the Cornell Dealer shown below.

GLENDALE GOLFERS WILL WATCH STATE 'OPEN' TOURNEY PLAY

Wilshire Country Club Now Mecca for Foremost Pill-Chasers; Stanford Seeks Exhibition Games

By HOWARD M'GILLIS, Sporting Editor of The Evening News

Now that the holiday football games are over and the moleskins have been tucked away until the beginning of the spring training season the eyes of Southern California's sport followers are temporarily turned toward the ancient and antiquated game of golf. Although the well known Scottish pill chasing pastime is probably the oldest form of competitive game in the world's athletic history it still ranks among the leaders in the list of national and international sports in the point of attracting interest.

The mecca for the country's foremost golfers at the present time happens to be the Wilhsire Country club in Los Angeles, where the annual state "open" championship tournament will be staged on next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Never before has the entry list for the Golden State classic included such a complete array of noted golf celebrities from all parts of the country as does that of 1922.

A few of the favorites in the coming three day tournament are Jack Hutchinson, British national champion; Jim Barnes, American "open" champion; Eddie Loos, present state champion; John Black, C. E. Whiting, MacDonald, Hutt Martin, Norman Macbeth and numerous others.

The familiar slogan that has been used by the navy recruiting authorities for the past few years "Learn a trade while traveling around the world," will soon have to be broadened to include American colleges and universities as well as Uncle Sam's sea forces. It seems that, if a college student is bright enough to earn a place on a varsity athletic team, he is rewarded with a trip abroad, the only effort to be put forth by the said student being that of playing in an exhibition contest two or three times a week.

Seeing what success has been made by teams representing Chicago University, University of California and the University of Oregon during the past year the athletics "powers that be" at Stanford University are making plans to send the 1922 Crimson baseball team to the Orient during the coming summer months. A number of Japanese universities have already made efforts to sign a contract with the Palo Altoans for a series of exhibition contests to last throughout the summer and it is practically a certainty that the athletic council will accept one of them.

Considerable comment has arisen in the United States during the past week regarding the stand recently taken by Mayor L. De Villegas of Havana, Cuba, regarding boxing contests and prize fighting. The popular American sport has been banned from the Cuban capital, the fatal ordinance which killed it classi g boxing as "brutal and dangerous" and making it a misdemeanor.

In a statement regarding the drastic ordinance De Villegas claimed that boxing as an art was but little different than common street fighting and that all persons participating in prize fights will be subject to fine and imprisonment "even though they are isolated in a roped enclosure and batter each other under slight restrictions for the amusement of a crowd."

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

It will be rather interesting to note the attitude of the public with respect to a Jack Dempsey-Harry Wills battle, an event which is being urged from a number of quarters. Upon the demeanor of followers of the ring toward the proposition will rest the decision of the promoter as to whether or not it is safe for him to stage such a match.

There is no doubt the public is anxious to see Dempsey get into action while he still is comparatively in his prime. It also is a certainty that this same public has no desire to see Dempsey matched against any of the present crop of heavyweights, none of whom even approaches mediocrity. It wants to see a match, but it wants a run for its money.

Wills seems to be the only man in the country at the present time that would have a chance against the champion. It is doubtful if even Tex Rickard again would attempt to use Jess Willard against Dempsey. It is certain that Dempsey would ask too high a price to go into the ring to justify any promoter taking the chances against the gate receipts making up his outlay.

The same consideration, however, enters into the case of a match against the negro, Wills. Dempsey has become accustomed to talking to promoters in terms of six figures. We are not here to argue whether or not he is worth the amount. We have our own private opinion to the effect that no pugilist is worth any where near that money, but we bow to the inevitable law of supply and demand. If the public thinks it is worth paying Dempsey a quarter of a million dollars to get into the ring for a few minutes, that is the public's business.

The question is, would any promoter get his money back? It is declared that the objection against the negro, Jack Johnson does not stand against the negro, Wills. The latter is said to be a man who "knows his place," and has no desire to force himself upon the attention of the public, something that Johnson lived by. Those who are urging a Dempsey-Wills match say that the objection against Johnson was not that he was a negro, but that he was an exceedingly objectionable negro, and one who disgraced the title of world's champion.

If the public subscribes to this view, all well and good. It will be up to the promoter to keep his ear to the ground and ascertain if it is a fact. Having assured himself that the match presents no objections, then it will be up to the promoter to discuss finances with the champion. Herein is likely to be the big stumblingblock. Dempsey is making plenty of "easy money" and is sure to display the fact in his demands that he is quite independent of any promoter.

In the meantime, the student of athletics and athletic condition from a physical point of view will tell you that Dempsey is gradually deteriorating through the comparatively easy and irregular life he is leading. The majority of experts on condition hold to the opinion that Dempsey already has passed his prime and is on the downward road. Of this there is little doubt. He may more than compare with any of his contemporaries, but, compared with his own self of a few years ago, the deterioration already has been noted. There were many who declared the Dempsey who fought Carpentier was not the equal of the Dempsey who took the crown from Willard.

SPORTS CHATTER
By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The year 1921 has been a brilliant series of successes for Pacific coast colleges in all branches of sport. In no less than four major sports coast colleges have gained national recognition, and in two of them, track and tennis, national collegiate titles have been won by Pacific coast collegians for the first time in history.

The victory of the University of California over Harvard by half a point in the I. C. A. A. A. A. track and field championships at Cambridge, Mass., and the victory of Phil Neer of Stanford in the National Intercollegiate tennis singles over Fenno of Harvard, with Ed Levy and Wallace Bates of the University of California being "runners up" to Fenno and Feibleman of Harvard in the doubles are two of the outstanding feats of coast collegians during the year.

No less meritorious was the phenomenal race of the University of California eight oared crew when it rowed itself into second place behind the "Navy" crew at Poughkeepsie, beating all other college crews. Once again the University of California flung its colors to the winds when on January first, at Pasadena the football team defeated Ohio State 28 to 0. Each of these events have played their part in bringing eastern recognition to the prowess of Pacific coast colleges in these various lines of sports activities.

The colleges of the Pacific coast conferences enjoyed one of the greatest years of their career. The University of California won undisputed claim to the football title, and the eight oared rowing championship, though in the latter the University of Washington was defeated only by a matter of five feet. In tennis Stanford won the coast conference singles through the agency of Jim Davies and thus divided honors with California when the latter team of Bates and Levy defeated Neer and Davies in the doubles.

In track and field neither California or Stanford competed in the coast conference championships held at Seattle. Here the University of Washington showed its prowess and won from the Oregon Aggies after a big argument.

The year 1922 from present indications looks to be just as good a prospect for high class competition as the year just ending. In the Pacific coast conference confines two new colleges have been admitted with the acceptance of the University of Southern California located at Los Angeles and the University of Idaho, Boise, Idaho, and both will add considerably to the general interest in all lines of competition. Add to this the fact that the conference has for the first time in its history added swimming to its list of major competitive sports of the conference and the year 1922 should be equally as good and more varied both in competitors and events at it was in 1921

You never can tell. Many a fast young man comes home on the slow freight.

Peace, How Could It Be?
Glendale Maintains Pace
"Sure Enough Welcome"
Others Spread Our Joy

By Gil A. Cowan

WHEN the United States Treasury tried to promote peace —well, it succeeded about as well as anyone else.

The new peace dollar is to be withdrawn from circulation and remodeled like the league of nations, disarmament conference and everything else having peace as an original idea.

Anthony Francisco, the sculptor, used his wife as a model and she insisted she had dimples—so that spoiled the peace of the money makers. And Anthony said he had a reputation, therefore he placed his initials "AF" on the dollar. That, too, is taboo.

Now after the die is cast and the dollar is coin of the realm the bankers say "peace" is so thin it will not stack. All of which is good and sufficient reason for relegating it to the crucible for more fitting form in the future.

A real surprise regarding Glendale's growth in 1921 was given readers of The Glendale Evening News yesterday by J. F. McIntyre, commercial agent of the public service department.

Think of a 30 per cent increase in one year, or 300 per cent in ten years, if it is possible to keep the pace. Of course, when Glendale jumped from a few hundred to 13,000 and more between 1910 and 1920 it was considered remarkable—

But when a city maintains that pace after it reaches the 15,000 mark there is no telling what heights will be hit.

Another consideration for the thoughtful is the more than 1500 new homes required to house the added populace.

Business houses, too, for their accommodation are required and, like a snowball rolling down hill, each brings more new residents to Glendale.

In some of the eastern centers today the citizens would be out with a brass band to welcome a new arrival. Here we have hardly time for a hearty handshake, but tourists and newcomers are "sure enough welcome."

Often opportunities arise for people to do good deeds.

This time a woman companion is needed by a mother who has recently undergone a serious operation.

While the stipend is small, the comfort one will get in aiding a family which needs more than money can buy should appeal to some kindly woman's heart.

If you desire a place in a good home to do light work and are young and able to get along with children, ask The Glendale Evening News classified department for this family's address.

Even Burbank glorifies in the fact that Glendale has an independent postoffice. Read what the Review has to say:

"Glendale hasn't recovered yet from the joy she experienced in extracting the postoffice from Los Angeles tentacles. Glendale is now happy. She buys her stamps and licks them in defiance of Los Angeles. Her postmaster is a citizen of Glendale, and D. Ripley Jackson is his name. He's a good man, popular, efficient, and hobnobs with the citizens of the town just like he was enjoying life. George Hallett is assistant to the postmaster. He, too, breathes the pure air of Glendale with a feeling that the shackles that have long bound them to the city of the Angels, and which wasn't particularly angelic, have been forever severed."

This Man Grandfather 3 Times in Half Hour

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo. — Eugene Oaks, of West Plains, claims to be the champion grand-dad in the country, and he bars none of them.

Just a few days ago he was sitting by his fireside reading when his phone rang.

When he took the receiver down a voice at the other end of the wire informed him that his daughter, Mrs. Orpha Robinson, had given birth to a baby girl.

Oaks ordred a box of cigars from the corner drug store.

He had barely gotten seated when there was a confusion at his front door. He went to see what the trouble was and it was the Western Union messenger boy with a wire reading, "Congratulations. You're a grandfather. Your daughter, Mrs. Roy E. Crone, of Warrensburg, Mo., just gave birth to a son."

He ordered another box of cigars for the celebration, all the time the smile on his face becoming broader.

Thirty minutes later he was aroused from his study by the phone again. It was a long-distance call from Grimmett, Mo.

"Hello, dad," said a voice. "This is your son, Oscar. You're a grandfather now. My wife just gave birth to a daughter."

Oaks phoned the store to send all the cigars they had and before he returned to his study he barred the doors and cut the telephone wire.

FOOTE SCORED ON GARRICK

Garrick, the famous actor, was well known for his meanness, and one day Foote, the comedian, scored neatly. Garrick had been rediculing a third party, when he relented and said: "Well, I suppose I ought to take the beam out of my own eye before I condemn another." "So you would," retorted Foote, "if you could but sell the timber!"

A book printed in 543 different languages has been published by the Bible Society.

Alter Family Bible Records for Licenses

ST. CLAIRSILLE, O.—The Ohio Legislature is credited with making the Bible more popular in Belmont county.

Since the legislators last spring enacted a law increasing the ages at which pupils may quit school scores of residents, desiring to obtain school certificates either for themselves or their children, have carried the family Bible to the office of George M. Pogue, county school superintendent, to prove that the party desiring the certificate is old enough to comply with the law.

A novel reason was presented to Superintendent Pogue why the family Bible could not be procured to prove the age of a boy who desired to quit school.

The father, a negro coal miner, said that, while moving from Kentucky to Stewartsville, Belmont county, the family Bible was lost from the wagon.

Superintendent Pogue declared that such excuses are frequent. He reported that Bible figures have been altered. This assertion was seconded by Deputy Probate Judge Frank Kerr, who issues marriage licenses. Deputy Kerr, however, has birth registration data in his office which he uses in checking up on doubtful Bible records of birth dates

Sneezes in Theatre; Man Is Fined $70

WHEELING, W. Va.—Watch yourself when you sneeze in a motion picture theatre. If you are a hay fever victim or if you try to be undignified by sneezing you may be out of luck. A man who sneezed in a motion picture theatre here was fined about $70 for it.

Joseph R. Nagel, a resident of this city, is the man. He was arrested and taken before Police Judge Ritz for sneezing too frequently in the theatre. Nagel's lawyer declared his client was afflicted with a severe cold, but the court ordered a medical examination which disclosed the fact that he was in perfect health. The judge announced that he knew of nothing more annoying than sneezing in a picture house and fined Nagel $50 and costs.

Hoboes Taking Advice of Horace Greeley

SAN FRANCISCO — The modern hobo is a disciple of Horace Greeley.

He obeys the command of "Westward, ho!" so numerously that he is becoming a serious problem in California and is seriously affecting employment conditions. Other Western states are being affected, but not so extensively as California.

In the month of October 20,634 undesirable persons were put off the trains or premises of the Southern Pacific company, according to a report made public by J. H. Dyer, general manager of the company. The report was presented by Dan O'Connell, Chief Special Agent, and showed that the total number of persons put off the company's property from January 1, 1921, to October 31, was 158,286.

New Dollar to Have Initials of Sculptor

WASHINGTON—The new "Peace Dollar" designed by Anthony de Francisci will bear a secret mark on the reverse medallion under the cameo of the Goddess of Liberty's head, as a tribute to the sculptor. The mark will be the sculptor's initials, the "F" being imposed on the "A."

BAITING RICH BACHELOR

GENEVA—A cruel joke has been played here on a wealthy bachelor named Adler. Marriage advertisements were distributed to the leading newspapers throughout Switzerland extolling the virtues of Adler, referring to his large fortune and adding that he wanted a pretty wife, without a dowry.

The unfortunate victim, after being flooded with letters asking for a meeting place to be arranged, was forced to publish a notice in the newspapers stating that he was not the author of the advertisements and, further, that he never intends to marry. Adler, in the meantime, has made a hurried retreat to a small mountain resort in order to escape from his fair admirers.

Women have practiced medicine for many years, an important book on the subject having been produced in England during the Middle Ages by St. Hildegarde, a woman.

JACKIE COOGAN IN 'MY BOY' NOW AT T. D. & L.

'The White Mouse,' Also 'The Adviser' On Same Big Bill

"My Boy" featuring Jackie Coogan, which is the attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre today is one of the best productions seen in Glendale. It is big in every sense of the word. Every man, woman and child in Glendale will love this picture, and it is one that will not be forgotten. It abounds in action. pathos, humor, drama and strikes a chord of deep understanding and lovable appeal.

Jackie Coogan, "the little man," finds himself in a terribly big world practically alone and the situations that arise from his predicament are both pathetic and comical. One really must see it to appreciate the joys of living and bigness in humanity—the happiness in giving.

In addition to "My Boy" the T. D. & L. theatre offers "The White Mouse," an intensely dramatic photo drama of the Northwest Mounted Police, featuring Lewis Stone, Wallace Beery and Ethel Grey Terry. For comedy, a continuous laugh fest, the Lloyd Hamilton production, "The Adviser" is presented and it is considered his best. From a standpoint of wholesome enjoyment, clean entertainment, this entire program is of exceptional merit.

Ralph Allan said last night when getting ready for the presentation of the program, "I consider this bill one of the best shown in Glendale in a long time and I enjoy the opportunity to present it. It is typically a high class T. D. & L. standard of show. I figure it will draw tremendous business during its entire showing."

SHIRLEY MASON IN 'QUEENIE' TODAY AT GLENDALE

International News Reel And Two Good Comedies· Complete Bill

Shirley Mason in "Queenie" is the charmer who will lead the crowds to the Glendale theatre today.

A most unlikely place to find a waif is an exclusive seminary for young ladies. But that it is where Queenie is discovered in the first part of this story. No, she is not studying there, but doing odd jobs for the pupils to earn her board and lodging. However, little Queenie has one great hope. She believes that a rich aunt will some day take her away to a beautiful home. The aunt takes her away, but to the basement of an old miser's dwelling where she is housekeeper. Before long Queenie has captured the heart of the miser. Then something happens to the lonesome old man, and a train of events is started that changes life for Queenie and everybody else in the place. There are incidents thrilling and incidents amusing; and a final climax that is altogether delightful.

Interesting International News, a Rolin comedy and Eileen Sedgwick in "A Woman's Wit" complete the delightful bill.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleepiness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

Married 38 Years and Mother 14 Asks Decree

HONOLULU, T. H.—Married for thirty-eight years, mother of fourteen children and now suing for a divorce—such is the plight of Mrs. L. Ah Leong, wife of a leading Chinese merchant of this city, whose fortune is estimated at close to the million mark.

In her divorce complaint, which among other things, alleges bigamy against Ah Leong, the wife of the merchant prince tells a romantic story of how the sum of $280, with which the couple started upon their first business venture thirty-eight years ago, has grown in that time to a fortune of nearly $1,000,000.

Starting with a little grocery store, in which the wife served as delivery boy and general roustabout, the couple worked their way through various enterprises, at one time failing and being compelled to start anew, with Ah Leong working in a clerical capacity. It was during this time that a little money was saved, which, invested in a small business grew little by little until other stores about the city were purchased, investments were made, and the Ah Leong family found itself "out of the woods" financially.

At about this time, alleges Mrs. Ah Leong, the rising merchant began to give thought to other women—women who had not become old and worn as she had through the hard work of trying to help build up the family fortune. And now, after thirty-eight years of it, Mrs. Ah Leong says that she is tired of the bargain and that she will accept a settlement of half the family fortune and custody of the minors among her fourteen children, and go her way a wiser woman.

Mr. Ah Leong was planning a vacation in China when the divorce proceedings were instituted. He has filed counter-suit, alleging that he and his present wife were never legally married.

COMPETITION SAVES MONEY

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—The state will probably save $100,000 on coal purchases, it is estimated, as a result of the recent inauguration of the open competitive system of receiving bids by the State Purchasing Department.

Under this new plan, it is stated, coal will be purchased for state offices and institutions at the rate of nearly $1 per ton less for nut, pea and slack, and at about fifty cents a ton cheaper for run-of-mine. With the new system in operation sixty bids have been received, as against eight bidders on institution coal under the old system.

Switzerland is electrifying her railways to save importing coal.

Jonathan S. Dodge Tells of Meeting On Water Storage

By JONATHAN S. DODGE,
Superintendent of Banks of the State of California.

On Monday, January 16, will be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Pasadena one of the most important and valuable conferences affecting southern California. All parties interested in the matter of conservation of water and its storage should be present and take part in this meeting. The public is invited to this conference.

The rains of the past few weeks bring vividly to the attention of all the supreme importance of controlling and conserving the rainfall of each year. In order to determine the actual conditions in California the last legislature appropriated the sum of $200,000 to be spent during a two year period in the investigation of the water resources of the state and in collecting data regarding all of the streams flowing into and through the state. This is the first attempt of the authorities of the state to get official information covering the whole state in order to use the same in directing future legislation. Governor Stephens, in accordance with the provisions of this act of the legislature appointed a consulting board of nine members who serve without pay and whose duty it it to secure the data and information needed and present the same to the next legislature with full recommendations. This consulting board consists of men from all portions of the state, men of acknowledged standing and especially gifted for this work. Such men as J. C. Forkner, the fig king of Fresno, California, Prof. H. D. McGlasham, engineer of the water resources of the United States geological survey; Prof. B. A. Etcheverry, professor of irrigation of the University of California; Col. Herbert D. Marshall, retired, originator of the Marshall plan project; Harry Hawgood, consulting engineer; Peter Cook, a rancher of Rio Vista; O. B. Tout of El Centro; Attorney General U. S. Webb and Jonathan S. Dodge, Superintendent of Banks.

Two members of the consulting board come from Los Angeles county, Harry Hawgood, an authority of high standing and a consulting engineer with a large clientele, and Jonathan S. Dodge, superintendent of banks, whose home is in South Pasadena. At the present time there are fourteen engineers in the employ of the state working under the direction of W. F. McClure, chief of the division of engineering and irrigation, whose sole business is the collection of data, analysis of stream flow and selection of locations for capacity control with construction costs, etc. Four of these engineers are located in Los Angeles and are now at work. Louis C. Hill, a consulting engineer of Los Angeles, has been selected to review the work of these enginers.

This meeting has been called by the consulting board to discuss with the people of Southern California water problems in the southern part of the state. Properly to be considered at that time would be plans for impounding dams in the San Gabriel and other canyons of this territory. The water problems of that tributary territory, the great Imperial Valley, should not be overlooked. Here is a valley so rich that it raises a full carload of produce for every man, woman and child residing within its borders.

I hope all the civic bodies of the southland and all those interested in legislation looking forward toward the conservation and control of water will take advantage of the meeting and be present ready to present for consideration any and all matters bearing upon a solution of this problem so vital to the future growth and prosperity of California.

TASTE ALONE NOT ENOUGH

It will be found that taste alone is not sufficient to obtain the proper end of reading. Two persons of equal taste rise from the perusal of the same book with very different notions; the one will have the ideas of the author at commanad, and find a new train of sentiment awakened; while the other quits his author in a pleasing distraction, but of the pleasures of reading nothing remains but tumultuous sensation.

Leone Shattuck Is Guest of Honor at Jesse Flower Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Flower of 1129 East Maple avenue were host and hostess at a miscellaneous shower given at their home Saturday night in honor of Miss Leone Shattuck, who is soon to become the bride of Emil O. Kiefer. The evening was spent in guessing games, fortune telling and music. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles D. Shattuck and consolation to Mrs. Maude Potter, both of whom presented the prizes to the guest of honor.

Decorations were carried out in the Christmas motif, and included a tree, etc. In place of mistletoe two tiny wedding bells were used. Miss Leone Shattuck was delegated to play the part of Santa Claus and instead of distributing the gifts was instructed to keep them for herself. These included a miscellaneous array of useful and beautiful gifts. At the close of the evening refreshments of jellied fruit, cakes and chocolate were served.

Those present included Miss Leone Shattuck, Emil O. Kiefer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Danford, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts, Miss Laura Roberts, Miss Coral Griffith, Mrs. Maude Potter, Frank Kiefer, Worth Calkins and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Flower.

Wheat Acreage Is Less, Estimated by U. S. Department

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—The Department of Agriculture estimated that the area of winter wheat sown last fall is 44,293,000 acres, which is 1.2 per cent less than the revised estimated area sown in the fall of 1920 (viz. 44,847,000 acres).

The condition of winter wheat on December 1 was 76 against 87.9 and 85.2 on December 1, 1920 and 1919 respectively, and a ten year average of 89.

The department estimated that the area of rye sown last fall is 5,184,000 acres, which is 22.6 per cent more than tne revised estimated area sown in the fall of 1920 (viz. 4,228,000 acres).

The condition of rye on December 1 was 92.2 against 90.5 and 89.8 on December 1, 1920 and 1919 respectively, and a ten year average of 90.9.

Woman Slays Her Two Children, Then Self

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 10.—Brooding over the death of her husband, who died of alcoholic poisoning several days ago, is believed to have caused Mrs. Laura Morris of this city to kill her two small children, aged 4 and 6 years and commit suicide by sending a bullet through her brain. Neighbors rushed into the house and found Mrs. Morris dead with the bodies of her two children beside her.

ERECTING RADIO TOWERS

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va.—Work of erecting huge radio towers on Langlin Field, the government's aviation landing lease here, has been started by D. T. Burton, a local contractor, to whom the contract for the work has just been awarded. The system is to be used for the purpose of communicating with the government aviators while in flight across the government route, giving them news of weather conditions and the like.

Balance of Chinese Famine Fund to Be Used in Prevention

SHANGHAI, China—Recent floods and famine in Anhwei, Shantung and other provinces of China have caused professional Chinese philanthropists to take a growing interest in the balance of $1,300,000 left over from the China Famine Fund collected under the auspices of ex-President Wilson and Thomas W. Lamont. The fund was sent to Peking for distribution by the American Advisory Committee for Famine Relief.

The American committee in Peking has been approached for some time past by philanthropists from various provinces and of various political affiliations with suggestions as to how best the money could be used.

The American committeemen have, however, decided that none of this money should be expended for the relief of floods or famine that the Chinese could have avoided or are in a position to attend to with their own funds.

It is the unanimous opinion of the committee that the $1,300,000 left over should be used as a famine prevention fund, the interest from which should be devoted to constructive work designed to aid in the prevention of future floods and famine and a recommendation to this effect was made to those in charge of the Chinese Famine Fund in the United States. Under no circumstances will any part of the $1,300,000 be turned over to Chinese or anyone else for flood and famine relief at the present time.

Women's Dean Has Rigid Propriety Code

COLUMBUS, Ohio—When are the morals and ideals of co-eds above reproach?

When they do not kiss promiscuously, do not dress immodestly, do not dance improperly, do not smoke, do not go to "petting parties," do not drink, nor consciously lie or cheat, do nothing they would be ashamed to tell their families and do not break the rules of any institution.

At least this is the judgment of Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women, Ohio State University.

She believes a girl undermines her womanliness if she does any of the above-mentioned things.

"In so doing is the girl not forfeiting the esteem of friends whose ideals are high that she may gain in the field where lower ideals prevail?" Dean Conrad asked.

"The question, then, resolves itself into the individual's problem, and, if the girl considers admiration won by doing these things worth admiration lost by so doing, it becomes the girl's own problem."

Perfume Need Not Be Immoral, Says Priest

LONDON—Father Degan, speaking at a meeting of the Girls' Diocesan Association, said girls might use perfume without becoming immoral and quoted Christ as saying, "When thou fastest, anoint thy head."

"It is much to be regretted, however," he continued, "that the only 'fast' understood by the gay, latchkey girl is a fast life.

"It is difficult for a man to feel for the modern type of woman the romantic chivalry that glows in the amatory effusions of the mediaeval troubadours.

"Women should begin a reaction toward the reticence, modesty and self-restraint of the Victorian age. Take with it your lawn tennis and fun. I am not a Puritan who objects to clean fun, but only to over-smoking, over-exuberance and swearing by women."

DERIVATION OF "LONDON"

The derivation of the name "London" is obscure. Some authorities believe it to be a combination of the old British words "lyn," meaning "lake" and "din" meaning "town," possibly because until recent times the southern side of the river Thames was practically swamp

As a Token of Appreciation

There is nothing finer or anything that will give more pleasure than a floral offering.

When you wish to make some one happy or show your appreciation of some friend have us prepare the bouquet of flowers and we will spare no pains to see that they are "just right."
